

LILY FROST

A rare bird from Canada's musical woods.

The tone of Lily Frost's fourth solo offering is emotional and enchanting.

"CINE-MAGIQUE" takes a minimalist direction, with flourishes of musical magic realism and cinematic dimensions.

The record was produced by her Chilean husband, Jose Miguel Contreras, in Toronto while Lily was pregnant with their first son, Meesha Moon.

Revealed in its 13 songs is Lily's musical essence - Spanish, French, spaghetti western guitars, love affairs, shadows and light.
